

105, 546

Trip took an hour; two and one-half miles from her house to scene of murders (63).

Shots didn't make her think of murder (63-4).

Identified Mrs. Hall at Prosecutor's office when she was the only woman in the room (64-5).

Went to Prosecutor's office to complain of corn stealing about three weeks after murders (66).

Read Sunday papers of September 17, 1922 but did not connect them with what she saw (67).

First night trip on mule (68).

Identifies Willie Stevens in court room (69).

Never saw him between night of murders and identification (69).

After first shot one woman said "Oh, Henry" (70).

Ran because she heard shots (70).

Didn't know where she was when at Phillips Farm (72).

Didn't remember whether a reporter visited her before she went to Prosecutor's office (73).

Identified Carpenter some days after visiting Prosecutor's office (74).

It was a clear night (75).

Not near David when identification made (77).

Left home immediately after bus passed and it always passes before 9:00 (77).

Saw no time piece that night (77-79).